“Swings for Strings” Golf Tournament at Crosswater on May 31

The “Swings for Strings” golf tournament and fundraiser is set for Sunday, May 31 at the award winning Crosswater golf course. Get your foursome together and enjoy a fun-filled day of golf, wine, food and fundraising and support the Sunriver Chamber of Commerce and the Sunriver Music Festival.

The “Swings for Strings” at Crosswater golf tournament is a collaborative fundraiser to support the Sunriver Chamber of Commerce’s business education programs and to provide support in bringing the world class Sunriver Music Festival Orchestra to Sunriver this August.

The golf tournament is made possible through the generous support of the Sunriver Resort, Crosswater, Chambers Cable of Sunriver, KOHD-TV and Cascade Publications. Local businesses are sponsoring each hole and will provide games and challenges on their sponsored holes.

The Sunday, May 31st shotgun start at Crosswater will begin at 12:00 will include 18 holes of golf, a golf cart and lunch. There will be driving range and putting green challenges prior to the shotgun start plus numerous prizes and awards. A reception, catered by the Sunriver Resort chefs, will conclude the day’s activities. The “Swings for Strings” participation fee is $125 per player, $75 for Crosswater members and $25 for non-golfers who would like to attend the post event reception.

In addition to the Sunday, May 31st “Swing for Strings” tournament, golf enthusiasts can enjoy a full weekend of affordable golf in Sunriver. The Sunriver Resort is offering discounted green fees on the Sunriver Resort’s
