REDESIGNED SUNRIVER MUSIC FESTIVAL WEBSITE OFFERS FASTER TICKET BUYING AND MORE FEATURES

SUNRIVER, ORE – Purchasing tickets to one (or all) of the concerts of the 39th Season of the Sunriver Musical Festival (August 7-18) just got a whole lot easier with a totally redesigned user-friendly website: www.sunrivermusic.org.

In addition to offering easier online ticketing, the dynamic new site features a new announcement page with regular performance updates and a brand-new musicians page that highlights the well-renowned roster of top talent that makes the festival the premier professional, high quality, classical musical festival in Central Oregon.

The new website was designed by Thomas Brunt, owner of OutFront, Inc. and the project was managed by Meagan Iverson, executive assistant at the festival.

“Our goal was to present a new clean, elegant online home that reflects the style and quality of the Sunriver Music Festival, explains Executive Director Pam Beezley. “Tom and Meagan did an outstanding job in making the special features of our festival more available to all our visitors online.”

For more details on the following performances, visit the new website. Please note: Due to the popularity of this year's Pops Concert with Thomas Lauderdale and Hunter Noack, the festival has added a second Pops Concert:
