CONCERT ROCK VIOLINIST AARON MEYER HEADLINES SUNRIVER'S DECEMBER CHRISTMAS CONCERT

SUNRIVER, ORE - Pink Martini's original violinist Aaron Meyer, brings his electrifying stage presence and an awe-inspiring performance to Sunriver on Saturday, December 7th for a Christmas Concert at Sunriver Resort's Homestead. Joining Aaron Meyer's four piece band will be the popular vocal trio The Brown Sisters.

Presented by the Sunriver Music Festival and the Sunriver Resort, concert rock violinist Aaron Meyer and his band have been captivating audiences worldwide with musical treats ranging from a dynamic rendition of Vivaldi's "The Four Seasons" to Pink Floyd's "Comfortably Numb" to the Beatles classic "Let it Be."

"We are so excited to welcome Aaron back for another Christmas Concert evening," explains Executive Director Pam Beezley. "I urge everyone to reserve their tickets early, since his concerts always draws enthusiastic sold out crowds." This year's concert will also feature selections from his newest album Twelve Days of Christmas.

"While Aaron is in Sunriver, he will conduct three days of educational workshops in our local schools," adds Beezley. "Aaron's school programs are educational and inspiring. He really knows how to connect with the students."

Aaron played his first violin when he was five, and by the time he was 11 years old, he had soloed with the prestigious Philadelphia Orchestra. After performing as an original member of world-renowned band Pink Martini, Aaron has gone on to share his talent with vastly contrasting artists such as Smokey Robinson, Aaron Neville, The Temptations, Leftover Salmon, and the platinum record selling band, Everclear.
